Our Association

LIVE ART AS AN “ART DE VIVRE”

Since 1986, we have developed our expertise in a very special field: cultural tourism.

Our initial ambition is to live art as an « art de vivre », to lead participants by their hand on our trips and tell them a story: the story of a place, its population, its architecture and its culture in the broadest sense.

Our team of professionals works on demand, adapting and creating tours and tailor-made programs.

Cultural tourism, special events and incentives, marketing and communication to be integrated in your seminar or congress: from the guided tour to your cultural event, Itinéraires answers promptly in (almost) every language. Each proposal is adaptable to your wishes and the reality of your timing and objective.

1) Guided walking tour

Beautiful and prodigious city!" exclaimed the German artist Dürer when he stopped off in Ghent in 1551. In the 16th century, Ghent was the most powerful city after Paris. By the end of the fifteenth century, Ghent had overcome the crisis in the cloth industry of the fourteenth century to become a huge grain warehouse and an active centre for inland waterway transport.

Practical information

5) Who Killed ... City Game with our actors

Following in the footsteps of the world's most famous detective, we invite you to criss-cross the city in search of clues that might put you on the trail of the murderer. You'll take on the role of a team of aspiring detectives in search of information about a cold case that's still open. Good luck, and don't forget to use your "little grey cells".

Practical Information

- Welcome and briefing by our detective host, Jean Hercule du Poireau.
- Participants are divided into 5 or 6 teams
- Distribution of an outline map, timing and suspect cards.
- Following the instructions on the timetable and the blank card, the participants set off to find the suspects, listen to their testimony and collect the clues, as well as discovering the history of the town and taking part in the challenges proposed at each stage.
- Final drink and unravelling of the mystery in a private area
- Length of activity: min 2h30 max 4h

Prices on demand including : the actors for max 4h, the private venue, 1 drink p.p., our services
